*On Monday, Feb 21, 2005,
the asteroid called Chiron (1) entered the sign of Aquarius (♒)
It will remain in this sign until May, 2010 when it briefly enters Pisces for three months.
For most of this time Chiron's transit will be quite close to Neptune, also traveling thru Aquarius.
Traveling so closely to Neptune increases the potential for spiritual healing.
In the sign of Aquarius this healing potential becomes available for whole of mankind.
It's an auspicious transit.*

*In mythology, Chiron was odd.
His mother was a horse, and that created a heavy emotional burden to carry.
Thus, he becomes the Wounded Healer.
In our lives he shows up as the teacher,
the counselor or the spiritual advisor.
His wisdom bridges the gap between ordinary worldly consciousness and intuitive knowledge.*

*We all have Chiron somewhere in our psyche.
It is an archetype that the whole human race feels.
However, most of us repress and distract ourselves from the benefits of looking more closely and engaging with this 'energy'.*

*The location of Chiron in your personal astrological birthmap can shed some light on where you could benefit from an alternative view.
Yoga can help you heal it.*
